The background is a collage of various industrial and construction-related images. In the top left, two construction workers in hard hats and safety vests are talking, one holding a mobile phone. To their right is a modern multi-story building. Further right is a large offshore oil rig. Below these are images of a quarry with excavators, a cargo ship, and a semi-truck at a port. The bottom right features a hand holding a glowing globe with various technology icons like a gear, cloud, and bar chart floating around it. The entire image has a yellow-to-blue gradient overlay.
